MONOMETALLISTS LEAD

In the Kentucky Democratic State Convention.

A FIGHT OVER THE CREDENTIALS.

It Delays the Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Results in a Victory in Committee for Hardin, the Candidate of the Silverites.

LOUISVILLE, June 26.—The administration and Secretary Carlisle were certainly favorites in the Democratic state convention here yesterday. The silverites went into the district meetings in the morning and into the convention at noon with confidence. In the district meetings they were beaten two to one. They claimed four out of the eleven district members of the committee on resolutions, but the administration men claim that the committee stood eight to three originally against free silver, and, as completed, nine to four.

The complexion of this committee could not have been changed by the appointment of both members at large from the silverites. But when Judge William Beckner, as temporary chairman, divided the members at large, giving one of the two to each side, the silver men felt that they had been outclassed, although they would not confess to being outnumbered. They claimed a victory in the election of Beckner over Stone, but after the former divided the appointments equally on all the committees, and announced his conservative views, no claims were made on him. Stone would have appointed only "sound money" men on the committees. Judge Beckner is a "sound money" man, but favored General Hardin for governor. Although General Hardin favors free coinage, he has been supported throughout by many who insist on a "sound many" platform for him.

The feature of the day was the defeat in his home district of Senator J. S. Blackburn for member of the committee on resolutions by Professor Arthur Yeager, a man of pronounced gold standard views, but who has devoted his time to college work, and not to politics. Senator Blackburn aspired to the chairmanship of this committee, and expected to have a majority of its members with him for free coinage and against Cleveland and Carlisle.

When Blackburn was defeated in the Seventh district it was ascertained that the Hardin men did not want to be embarrassed by his appointment as one of the members at large, and then Mr. W. T. Ellis, of the Second district, offered Senator Blackburn his proxy. Objections were raised in the convention on the announcement of Blackburn's name for the committee from the Second district, and no further effort in that direction were made.

Aside from the temporary organization and the appointment of committees no work was accomplished at yesterday's sessions. Numerous dilatory motions were indulged in, the Clay men wanting an adjournment till today. This filibustering was kept up for over two hours, with much disturbance The committee on resolutions was ready to report at 9 p m., but delayed its report, awaiting the outcome of the credentials committee, which was fighting over contests among the delegates from Louisville and Newport

Senator Lindsay prepared the majority report on resolutions, which embraced a strong honest money plank and indorsed Cleveland and Carlisle by name for their financial policy and administrations. It was signed by nine of the thirteen members of the committee. There were two minority reports, one for the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1, and the other simply reaffirming the platform of 1892

There was intense feeling because the fight between the Hardin and Clay men on stealing delegates in the committee on credentials delayed the resolutions and the proceedings of the convention, but nothing could be done toward facilitating business. Several hundred motions to adjourn were voted down and the convention remained waiting, although the committee on credentials at 11 p. m. announced that it could not report until after midnight. Senator Lindsay and Chairman Berry refused to report the resolutions or do anything till the report on credentials came in.

The committee on credentials closed up shortly before midnight and reported in favor of the Hardin delegates in Louisville and at Newport, when the scenes of disorder had a slight suspension. When the Clay men offered a minority reporrt on credentials another lively scene was began, with the usual motions for adjournment. The consideration of the two reports on credentials was pending at 1 a. m., with but little prospect of conclusion.

Convention of Free Silver Democrats.

MEMPHIS, June 26.—Immediately after the adjournment of the silver convention recently in this city a meeting of a number of prominent Democrats who attended that gathering was held and plans outlined for an organization of free silver men within the Democratic party for the purpose of carrying on the silver campaign within party lines As a result of this meeting an address has been sent to Democratic leaders throughout the country, inviting them to meet at Washington on Aug. 14 next to perfect an organization. The address is signed by Senators Harris, Jones and Turpie.

Bills Approved by Governor Hastings.

HARRISBURG, June 26.—Governor Hastings disposed of twenty-four bills yesterday by vetoing two and approving the others. The bills which did not meet with his approval were purely local in character, and were vetoed because the governor deemed them clearly unconstitutional. Among the bills approved were: To prevent the pollution of waters of streams supplying centers of population by use of burial lands for burial purposes within the prescribed limits; authorizing boroughs to redeem outstanding bonds, and for that purpose issue and sell interest bearing bonds and provide a fund for the redemption thereof; to promote cleanliness and healthfulness in and about the public schools.

Kidnaped by Her Father.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 26.—A woman about 23 years of age, giving the name of Mrs. Gunn, of Pittsburg, complained to the police here yesterday that her divorced husband had kidnaped their 2-year-old daughter while walking with its aunt on West avenue. The woman said the man jumped from a carriage, seized the child and drove rapidly away. Later developments show that the girl taken was the 4-year-old daughter of John Dwyer, a dry goods merchant of Pittsburg. The woman giving the name of Gunn was the child's aunt, instead of mother. Mrs. Dwyer is living here pending divorce proceedings from her husband.

California Peaches Not Wanted.

SACRAMENTO, June 26.—Fruit shippers in this section advise all growers not to make any shipments of peaches east this year, but instead to dry them and sell to the best advantage to canners. The leading shipper here says: "The refusal to handle peaches at eastern markets is owing to the enormous crop in Georgia, Maryland, Delaware and New Jersey. Georgia peaches are now coming in in immense quantities, and reach New York and Chicago in better condition than California peaches."

Must Take the Children, Too.

OCALA, Fla., June 26.—J. W. Murray, a Canadian officer, arrived here yesterday and served extradition papers on Thomas Gray and wife. A hitch arose, however, as to Gray's six children in jail with him. Sheriff Hodge holds that if the parents are taken the children must go too, and not be left as a burden upon this country. Officer Murray has wired to Canada for instructions.

Knocked Out in Ten Seconds.

LOWELL, Mass., June 26.—Dick O'Brien, the Lewiston, Me., pugilist, put out Jack McDonough, of St. Paul, in ten seconds before the Gladstone Athletic club last night. McDonough did not have time to strike a blow, for in opening O'Brien landed a body blow, driving McDonough to the ropes, and then, swinging cleanly on the jugular, dropped his opponent to the floor.

Indorsing Governor Hastings.

CLEARFIELD, Pa, June 26—At the Clearfield county Republican convention, held here yesterday, the administration of Governor Hastings was enthusiastically indorsed. The announcement of his name was cheered to the echo, as was also the resolution indorsing Colonel B. F. Gilkeson for re-election as chairman of the Republican state committee.

SALISBURY'S MINISTRY.

VETERANS IN PUBLIC SERVICE

They Are the Duke of Devonshire, A. J. Balfour, Joseph Chamberlain, Michael Hicks-Beach and George J. Goschen. Brief Sketches of the New Minister.

LONDON, June 26—Great Britain's new premier has partially completed the new ministry, and announces the appointment of the following: Premier and secretary of state for foreign affairs, Marquis of Salisbury; president of the council, Duke of Devonshire; first lord of the treasury, Mr A. J. Balfour; secretary of state for the colonies. Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain; chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, first lord of the admiralty, Right Hon George J. Goschen. The other members of the government have not yet been fixed upon.

The new premier, Robert Arthur Talbot Gascoigne-Cecil, third Marquis of Salisbury, was born in 1830, and married the daughter of the late Baron Alderson. He was educated at Oxford, and is chancellor of that university. He has been twice secretary of state for India and twice secretary of state for foreign affairs. He was premier in 1885, and formed his second ministry in 1886. He resigned in 1892. He proceeded to Constantinople as a special ambassador at the conference there in November, 1876, and he and Lord Beaconsfield, in 1878, were the representatives of Great Britain at the congress of Berlin.

Spencer Compton Cavendish, K. J., P. C., eighth Duke of Devonshire, is the leader of the Liberal-Unionists in the house of lords. He was born in 1833, and was educated at Trinity college, Cambridge, which conferred upon him the degree of M. A. in 1852 and LL. D. in 1862. His second title is that of Marquis of Hartington. He was attached to Earl Granville's special mission to Russia in 1856. He has been a lord of the admiralty, under secretary for war, secretary for war twice, postmaster general, chief secretary for Ireland from 1871 to 1874, and secretary for India in former Liberal governments. He sat as a member of parliament for different districts from 1857 to 1891. He is a chancellor of the University of Cambridge, and an alderman of the Middlesex county council.

Hon. A. J. Balfour, the new first lord of the treasury, is a nephew of the Marquis of Salisbury, his mother being a daughter of the second Marquis of Salisbury and a sister of the present Marquis. He was born in 1848, and was educated at Eton and at Cambridge. He was appointed president of the local government board in 1885, and was secretary for Scotland, with a seat in the cabinet, from 1885 to 1887. He became chief secretary for Ireland on the resignation of Sir Michael Hicks-Beach in 1887, and retained that position until 1891, when he became first lord of the treasury and leader of the house of commons, retaining that position until 1892, when the Salisbury government resigned.

Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, the Unionist leader in the house of commons, and the newly appointed secretary of state for the colonies, is one of the foremost and most daring men in British politics at the present time. He is credited with having engineered the downfall of the Rosebery government, and is undoubtedly a man of great personal ability. He was born in London in 1836, and has been married three times, his present wife being a daughter of W. C. Endicott, formerly secretary of war of the United States. He was educated at the University college school, London, was formerly a manufacturer in Birmingham, and retired from business in 1874. Mr. Chamberlain has been three times successively elected mayor of Birmingham, and was president of the local government board in 1886. In August, 1887, he was appointed one of the commissioners to settle the fisheries dispute with the United States. He has sat for Birmingham in the house of commons since 1876.

Sir Michael Edward Hicks-Beach, ninth baronet, was born in 1837, in London. He was educated at Eton and at Christ church, Oxford, where he graduated B A. in 1858, and M. A in 1861. He was parliamentary secretary to the poor law board from February till December, 1868, with the exception of a few weeks, during which he was under secretary for the home department. He was chief secretary for Ireland in 1974-78, and secretary of state for the colonies from 1878 to 1880. He was appointed chancellor of the exchequer in 1885, and again secretary for Ireland in 1886. He resigned the latter office in March, 1887, but remained a member of the cabinet without office till January, 1888. He re-entered the cabinet in February, 1888, as president of the board of trade. He has been a member of parliament since 1864.

Right Hon George Joachim Goschen calls himself a Liberal-Unionist, though he held office in Lord Salisbury's former Conservative ministry. He was born in 1831, and was educated at Rugby and at Oriel college, Oxford. He was appointed an ecclesiastical commissioner in October, 1882, lord rector of Aberdeen university in 1887, and lord rector of Edinburgh university in 1890. He was vice president of the board of trade and paymaster general in 1865-66, and subsequently chanceller of the Duchy of Lancaster, president of the poor law board, and first lord of the admiralty. He was engaged on a special mission to Constantinople in 1880-81, and was chancellor of the exchequer in Lord Salisbury's second administration in 1887-92. He has set in parliament for different districts since May, 1863.

It is believed that the Marquis of Salisbury, before deciding to form a new ministry, received assurances that the outgoing ministry would assist the now government in passing the estimates in time to enable parliament to dissolve by July 10. The Tories are reluctant.

Both parties profess to be ready for a general election in July, but the outgoing ministers do not appear greatly disheartened. Lord Rosebery and Sir William Harcourt are particularly jaunty and jovial, and make it plain that their release from office at this time was the thing most to be desired.

The Irish people are taking a great interest in the present situation. Justin McCarthy has issued a manifesto to the people of Ireland, stating that the defeat of the government has placed Ireland's bitterest enemies in office. "For a brief space before the election," the manifesto says, "Downing street and Dublin castle will be occupied by men pledged to the policy of coercion in Ireland. This defeat was compassed by the factionists who still divide Ireland."

ORLEANS AND SAVOY UNITED.

Marriage of the Duke of Aosta and Princess Helene.

LONDON, June 26 — Prince Emanuel Filiberto, duke of Aosta, nephew of King Humbert, of Italy, was married yesterday at the Church of St. Raphael, Kingston-on-Thames, his bride being the Princess Helene of Orleans.

The wedding ceremony was a brilliant affair. The route from Kingston railway station to the church was spanned by triumphal arches made dazzling with color by a multitude of French and Italian flags and ensigns, and by escutcheons representing the arms of Savoy and of the House of Orleans. Enthusiastic masses of people lined the streets of Kingston and cheered the arrivals most heartily.

Anderson Mrs Green made use of the following language: "Did you ever see such a set of buzzards. Oh, it is sad to think of poor Irene Hoyt. Joe Choate and the other buzzards got hold of her, and she is in an asylum now."

A Reply to Bimetallists.

LONDON, June 26—The Gold Standard Defense association, by way of reply to the recent bimetallic memorial, issued a long statement recounting the arguments against bimetallism. The statement concludes: "The memorial proves the weakness of the bimetallic cause. After years of agitation and discussion, all that its advocates can produce is the proposal for a conference, in the vague hope that out of the conflicting theories and jarring interests there represented, by some process as yet undetermined, some cure equally uncertain may be found for exaggerated or imaginary evils"

UNCLE SAM THE WINNER

The Peralta Land Grant Claim a Monster Fraud.

THE CLAIMANT TO BE PROSECUTED.

He Laid Claim, Through His Wife, to Over Twelve Million Acres of Land in Arizona and New Mexico, Much of It Occupied by Settlers.

SANTA FE., N M., June 26—The great Peralta grant, situated in Arizona and New Mexico, and covering 12,465 000 acres of land, which has been on trial for three weeks, was decided yesterday in favor of the government. The claimant was in court, appearing cool and collected.

The court held every title paper to be forged and manufactured, and that the mission records of San Salvador, Cal., were forged to enable the wife of the claimant to connect herself with a Peralta family. Chief Justice Reed announced that it was sufficient to hold that she was neither an heir of the alleged grant nor entitled to maintain the suit. The written opinon will be filled by the chief justice.

Reavis was arrested by the United States marshal for asserting false claims against the government, upon complaint made by United States Attorney Reynolds. United States Attorney Reynolds and his associate, Mallett Prevost, are being showered with congratulations from all over Arizona. Mr. Prevost is a well known Spanish lawyer of New York, who was engaged by Attorney General Olney to assist in the defense. Mr. Prevost visited Mexico and Madrid in the interest of the government's case. This practically ends the most stupendous fraud ever attempted in this country, and successfully carried on for a quarter of a century.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The arrest of James A. Reavis in New Mexico yesterday, and the decision of the United States court of private land claims that Reavis' right to nearly 12,000,000 acres of land in Arizona and New Mexico, much of it occupied by settlers, and known as the Peralta-Reavis Mexican grant, is declared to be fraudulent, was received by Secretary Olney and the officials of the department of justice with much satisfaction. A year and more ago Attorney General Olney became convinced that the claim was a fraud, and immediately took steps to bring the promoters of it to justice. Reavis will undoubtedly be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Three Killed on a Georgia Railroad.

MACON, Ga., June 14—A serious wreck occurred on the Central railroad near Milledgeville, some twenty miles from here. Three men were killed and several badly injured. A freight train had stopped at Midway station to shift some cars, when a service train, heavily loaded, approached the station, which is on a steep grade. A coupling pin broke, and the cars rushed down the grade and struck a car that had been left on the main line by the freight train.

A Dispute Regarding the Bridgeton.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 26—A dispute has arisen here between the American and Spanish consuls regarding the character of the steamer Bridgeton, which put in here in a half wrecked condition, which her captain said was due to her having encountered a severe storm. She followed close upon the arrival of the George W. Childs, which is alleged to have landed a filibustering expedition in Cuba. The Spanish consul here alleges that the Bridgeton is a filibusterer, while the American consul and the captain and crew of the Bridgeton strenuously deny it. The British government has refused to take any action against the Bridgeton, on the ground that no evidence has been brought which shows that she is a filibusterer.

Mary Druse Pardoned.

ALBANY, June 26.—Governor Morton has pardoned Mary Druse, who is serving a life sentence in Auburn for the murder of her father in Herkimer county ten years ago. The mother first shot her husband and then chopped his head off, and finally chopped up the body and burned it She was convicted and executed. Her daughter Mary at the time was 18 years of age. She pleaded guilty of murder, second degree, on advice of counsel, although it is alleged there was no evidence connecting her with the crime.

Credulity of Russian Peasantry.

A writer in a French review tells a curious story serving to show the misery and credulity of the peasantry in some districts of Russia, as well as the audacity of the unscrupulous swindlers by whom they are sometimes fleeced. An adventurer was recently tried at Saratof for having induced a number of peasants to abandon to his keeping all their worldly possessions, with the view of emigrating under his guidance to—Jupiter There they were to find land in abundance, easy to work and marvelously fertile When the local authorities intervened, it was found that quite a band of emigrants were preparing to start for the blessed planetary colony We are not told what defense was made by the prisoner, but it was quite apparent that his dupes were aware that it was to no terrestrial land of promise that he was to lead them He was therefore indicted and condemned for "spreading false reports about Jupiter"—Westminster Gazette

Gentlemen:—I have used tobacco for over twenty five years chewing and smoking every day from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m., stopping only for meals

On Monday, February 4th, I called at your office in Springfield, and bought a bottle of the Cure which I used as directed, and on the tenth day the desire for tobacco had left me and it has not returned. I did not lose a meal while taking the Cure. My appetite has improved and I consider Narcoti-Cure a grand thing

Very respectfully,
CHAS. I. LINCOLN.

Mr. Frank H. Morton of Chicopee Falls, Mass., late inspector of Public Buildings for Massachusetts, says:

I used tobacco for twenty five years, and was a confirmed smoker. In just eight days' treatment with Narcoti Cure I was through with tobacco, in fact the desire for tobacco vanished like a dream.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50 cent bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Funny, isn't it? If it were not that some people are afraid of two or three men down our way we would make our end of the city look like a "Greater Middletown" within three months. We are doing considerable in that line nevertheless, but it is harder, of course, to work with this constant grumbling and objecting. There were men who opposed the Erie Road because it would destroy teaming. Another thought electric lights in Middletown might make people stumble over the shadows. Another said if they changed the name of "Canal street" to the old musical Indian name of Wawayanda avenue, some of his friends couldn't spell it. Another wanted one of the church spires taken down for fear it would fall. Another said if people would do less washing and measure the water they used, Middletown would not need any more

Richmond Hill is not backed by narrow gauged men. Wide streets appropriately named, 800 shade trees, 100 lamp posts, extra sized building lots, easy terms; in fact, with an abiding conviction and faith in the greater Middletown, we offer to-day to home-seekers the greatest opportunity in years. We have helped over twenty persons to build homes in the last three months, and we are still "in the ring."

STEAM HEAT FOR NEWBURCH

A Scranton Company Anxious to Put in a Plant.

Mr. S. W. Roberts, formerly of this city, stopped off in town, yesterday, on his way from Newburgh to his home in Scranton. Mr. Roberts represents the Scranton Steam Heating Co. and was in Newburgh with the view of putting in a plant to supply residents of that city. He is confident that a franchise will be granted his company and if so residents of the Hillside City may soon have steam on tap as they now have water and gas.

The Coming Hot Wave.

The weather predictions take no account of the cool and moisture laden atmosphere blown in from the ocean by the fresh southeasterly wind that prevailed, last night. They pin their faith on the hot wave which is rolling eastward, and of which we are told we are to feel the effects late this afternoon and to-morrow and Friday. Extreme sultriness, rather than very high temperature, is the characteristic of the predicted hot wave, and we all know that sultry heat pro uces the greatest deg ee of physical discomfort.

The Lightning Came Very Close.

During the thunder storm, Monday afternoon, lightning struck an oak tree, standing about 150 feet from the residence of Mr. Frank Rogers, on the road leading from the Mechanictown road to Seven-and-a-Half Station. Mrs. Rogers and her little child were standing in the door at the time. Mrs. Rogers felt a very distinct shock and the child was knocked down, but neither was injured.

Ordained to the Ministry.

Rev. Charles E. Corwin, recently appointed pastor of the Reformed Church at Cuddebackville, was ordained yesterday. The President of the Classis, Rev. C. Van Oostenbrugger, presided and read the form; Rev. Dr. S. W. Mills, of Port Jervis, preached the sermon; Rev. E. T Corwin, D. D., father of the new pastor, delivered the charge to his son, and Rev. Ame Vennema, of Port Jervis, gave the charge to the people.

LITERARY NOTES

—The July Forum will contain a striking article by Dr. Max Nordau, author of "Degeneration" on "Society's Protection Against Degenerates"—the first contribution that he has made to an American publication. Judge George F. Edmunds and Edward B. Whitney, Assistant Attorney-General, will discuss respectively the Salutary Results and the Political Danger of the Income Tax Decision. Mr. Whitney's article shows that the decision may not by any means be the end of the matter.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O , contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure to get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Do. Testimonials free.

A False Diagnosis.

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the head, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact, are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Conclusion of the Circuit Court—Prisoners Sentenced.

In the suit of Winfield Scott vs. Lewis B. Halsey, the case of plaintiff was presented, and then the complaint was dismissed.

In the suit of A. H. Topping, vs. Thomas Carroll and another, the case was dismissed on its merits, with fifty dollars costs for the defendant.

Judge Gaynor pronounced sentence, yesterday, upon three prisoners. James Cummings and Thomas Reed, who, Monday, pleaded guilty to the charge of burglarizing the store of Cornish & Kniffin in the town of Goshen, were sent to Sing Sing, the former for two years and eleven months, the latter for four years and six months. John Dolson, who pleaded guilty to the indictment for breaking into Fred. Clark's store in Newburgh, was sentenced to Sing Sing for four years and six months.

A little boy named Archer, whom Newburgh's Recorder has sentenced to the House of Refuge, and in whose behalf Judge Gaynor had been appealed to, was brought into court. The Judge told the tearful culprit to go home, be a good boy and have nothing whatever to do with bad boys.

The Circuit Court was adjourned at noon sine die. The Court of Oyer and Terminer was adjourned until to day, when arguments in the McLaughlin case will be heard.

SELLS BROTHERS' CIRCUS.

First Eastern Tour in Fifteen Years of the Big Show of the World That Has Made All America Talk.

The pleasurable anticipation aroused by the contemplated visit of Sells Brothers' Enormous United Shows to this city is about to be realized. This mammoth aggregation will exhibit at Middletown, Thursday, June 27th.

No exhibition that has ever visited Middletown has been so comprehensive in its method of advertising or has ever succeeded in attracting so much attention by its editorial and pictorial announcements. This grand organization has the finest lithographic printing ever displayed in this city, and it has been scattered with a profuse liberality such as no circus management, not backed by stupendous capital and reinforced by a giant amusement enterprise, could afford. These wonderful specimens of the printers' art do not begin to tell the story of the marvels of Sells Brothers' Millionaire Shows, which comprise, among its many exclusive zoological features, a pair of monster hippopotomi. They are absolutely the only giant male and rival female hippopotomus to be seen together and either is both in size and weight quadruply the superior of any other shown. These truly wonderful blood sweating creatures will be let loose in the arena and go through a most remarkable performance that cannot be duplicated by any show on earth. A troupe of trained Alaskan seals and sea lions performing original tricks of the most astonishing character, will also appear.

Messrs. Sells Brothers, this season, have given special attention to their mammoth menagerie, which is now the largest in the world, embracing fifty gold emblazoned cages filled with the rarest wild animals in captivity.

Sells Bros. come to Middletown in a blaze of glory and it is,, without doubt, the most gigantic exhibition that has ever visited Middletown, introducing Grand Triple Ring Circus, Five- Continent Menagerie, Real Roman Hippodrome, Huge African Aquarium, Australian Aviary, Arabian Caravan and the unequaled free street parade. The Sells Bros.' big Enterprise has been under one and the same management for a longer period than any other in existence, being now in its twenty-fourth prosperous year and the first big show to recognize the needs of the times and to reduce the price of admission to 25 cts., which includes a comfortable seat. Be in town early and see the free daily street parade of glittering splendor. The procession leaves the show grounds at 10 o'clock on the morning of the exhibition. It is over a mile in length. See the vast city of canvas! Then decide whether or not you want to see the greatest show on earth. Two performances daily, afternoon at 2, night at 8, doors open one hour earlier. One 25 cent ticket (seat encluded,) admits to all combined shows. Special excursion rates on all lines of traval.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 1895.

It looks as if Senator Quay had the fight of his life on hand to retain control of the Republican machine in Pennsylvania. Gov. Hastings, Chris. Magee, Mayor Warwick, of Philadelphia, Dave Martin and other of his old lieutenants are against him, and it is certain that there will be more Republican politics than usual in Pennsylvania this year.

Chairman Hackett, of the Republican State Committee, said, yesterday, that the Republican party had had enough of Senator Coggeshall, and that his re-nomination would not under any circumstances be permitted. If any attempt is made to defeat Coggeshall there will be the liveliest kind of a row in Oneida county, for the local machine is entirely under his control and all the "boys" are for him, for he has always been for the "boys."

Senator Stewart voices the sentiments of the free silver leaders when with fine scorn he denounces the shuffling, evasive course of the Republican league in regard to silver. Senator Carter, of Montana, Chairman of the Republican National Committee, in speaking of the convention's straddle takes occasion to remind all Republicans that "without the aid of the eighteen Republican senators from the so-called silver states the Republican party can never hope to see any party purpose or principle crystalized into law and placed upon the statue books of the United States."

Mayor Schieren and Controller Palmer, of Brooklyn, as members of the Board of Estimate, made a raid on the Brooklyn schools, yesterday. The Mayor said he had been told that the salaries paid Brooklyn teachers were too high, more than is paid in other cities or in private schools. At his suggestion, $45,000 was cut from the Board of Education's estimate for the general salary list, $37,250 from the training and high school estimate and $25,000 from that for evening schools. Brooklyn's schools have always been one of that city's chiefest prides and the action of the Mayor and Controller in seeking to cripple their efficiency has aroused much indignation.

These are sorry days for the protection organs which for the past two years have howled calamity. Announcements of increased business activity and of advances in wages follow each other in quick succession and the very industries which we have been told were most completely ruined are those in which the most liberal increases in wages are being granted, and which seem most prosperous under the Democratic tariff. At Trenton, the pottery manufacturers who, we were told over and over again, were ruined beyond the possibility of resurrection by low duties, have just advanced wages from ten to forty per cent. The iron and steel industry was another branch of manufacturing that was not to survive tariff reduction and yet from every section of the country come tidings of plants crowded with orders at prices which warrant liberal increases in wages. The prophets of evil cannot reconcile their protectionist theories and their predictions of unspeakable calamities with existing conditions and the claim that business is reviving because of the hope that Republican success in 1897 will be followed by a restoration of McKinley duties, is so far fetched that it does not deceive even those who make it.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lounsberry, on West Main street, at 2:30 o'clock, this afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Ella D., was united in marriage with Mr. Louis E. Hedge.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. A. Heath in the presence of a small company of relatives and intimate friends.

After their return they will reside with the bride's parents, on West Main street.

The groom is a well known and highly esteemed young man, and is an employe of the O. and W.

The bride has been a popular teacher in the public schools for several years, and the leading soprano in the choir of the First Baptist Church. Her popularity among her friends was attested by the large number of handsome and valuable presents she received.

A CAKE WALK AT MIDWAY.

Watched by a Large and Interested Crowd—Five Couples in the Contest—Fred Beasley and Fannie Osterhout Take the Cake

There have been numerous cake walks in this city in recent years but none has ever attracted as many people as that which was held at Midway Park, last evening. An interested crowd of spectators surrounded the platform, and the five couples who participated in the walk were urged by their friends to put forth their best individual and collective efforts.

The cake was finally awarded to Mr. Fred Beasley and Miss Fannie Osterhout, of this city, with Mr. Eugene Broadhead, of Port Jervis, and Miss Jennie Fowler, of this city, close seconds. The other contestants were Mr. Geo. Smith and Miss Lillie Lewis, Mr. John Bull and Claribel Hasbrouck and Mr. Chas. Walker and Miss Annie Stewart, of Goshen.

The judges were selected among the spectators and the band as follows: C. E. Mance, Wm. Barnes, Alex Gale Johnson, E. H. Rose, Geo. Hasbrouck and Geo. Morrison.

Messrs. Johnson and Hasbrouck have won many cakes in similar contests and were well qualified to act as judges. In the language of the former, the qualifications of an expert consist of ability to walk in a "gallus" style, keeping time to the music and "winging" the corners in approved fashion.

While the judges were in doubt as between Messrs. Beasley and Broadhead they finally concluded that Mr. Beasley's style was a little more "gallus" than that of the gentleman from Port Jervis, and his "winging" "took the cake."

A concert by the 24th Separate Company Band preceded the cake walk, and dancing followed the contest.

ON THE LOOKOUT FOR BURGLARS

Residents Along the Crawford Road Prepared to Welcome Thieves

The burglars' trip over the Crawford road, Monday night, is regarded by residents of the several towns in that locality as merely a reconnoitre by the advance guard, and a series of burglaries is expected.

At Thompson Ridge, where the depot was broken open, Mr. Erskine Ward has a store which has heretofore been guarded by a large mastiff dog. Yesterday morning, Mr. Ward remarked that he had no fears of burglars, because his dog would take care of them.

Strange as it may seem, Mr. Ward's dog was shot, last night and it would be hard to make people in that locality believe that it was not done by the parties who visited the depot, Monday night.

Residents in Pine Bush, Circleville, Bullville and Thompson Ridge are thoroughly aroused and if a raid is made, as they expect, the thieves will receive a warm welcome.

A few years ago people having appendicitis died. An operation is now performed by a specialist and they live. Rupture until lately was called incurable. Drs. Jones & Potter, rupture specialists, have cured many people here of rupture, by their special system. Russel House, Thursdays.

IN MORROW'S HEAVEN.

One of the Believers In Nude Worship Defends Her Faith.

As a moral reformer the Rev. John Morrow is being criticised by Omaha ministers. The local Ministerial association held a meeting today and discussed the startling theology advanced by the apostle of living pictures clothed in Adamic apparel for the modern church.

A committee was appointed to call on some member of the congregation which practices nude worship, in order that a fair idea of the situation might be made known. Mrs. Thomas Grocox was selected. She is a bright, handsome little woman of 30, with a sweet face and the air of a sincere Christian. She unblushingly admitted her membership in "Brother" Morrow's "Holy Heaven," and attempted in an ingenious manner to maintain her position.

Mrs. Grocox produced a letter which she received from a sister in the faith residing in Elmira, N. Y., in which the doctrines of the faith were set forth, the letter being in answer to one sent by Mrs. Grocox for light to follow the new belief. The doctrine is not that meetings shall be held in which it shall be the rule for those present to disrobe as a part of the ceremony, but that the disrobing and bath [illegible] the spiritual meetings are called, shall be done only when the spirit moved.

Mrs. Grocox then gave her own experience. She stated that she was moved to seek the faith more than three years ago and had ever since followed it. She said: "I had looked into the matter deeply and prayed for light upon the subject, and there is one dear brother who resides in this city who came to me to learn more about it. I told him that I must have three days in which to pray and seek light.

"The second day a great thunderstorm came up and it hailed, and I thought it was a sure sign that I must not lead him. But I walked the floor all the afternoon and away into the night and sought God's counsel, and finally his command came to me. I went to the Bible and opened it. There before me were the words, 'Be not afraid, for, lo! I am with you alway,' and I knew that it was my duty to instruct him."—San Francisco Examiner.

STRANGE INCIDENT.

A strange incident happened at a funeral near Parsons, Kan., the other day. A little son of Samuel Carson, residing southwest of the city, died and was buried in the neighborhood cemetery. There being no hearse the remains were placed in a spring wagon and conveyed to the cemetery.

On the way to the grave a swarm of bees gathered on the lid of the coffin and there remained. When the cemetery was reached, all efforts to drive the bees from the coffin were without avail, and the pallbearers were forced to take charge of the coffin with the bees swarming about them, and before the remains were deposited in the grave every pallbearer suffered, being stung in more than one place on the face and hands. The bees clung so tenaciously to the coffin that many of them were buried with the body of the dead boy.

The dead boy was very fond of bees, and whether the bees were thus showing their grief over the loss of their young friend or what the significance of such an act on the part of the bees was is a mystery yet unsolved.—Kansas City Times.

Why He Staid.

The Rev. J. F. Wilcox of Chicago, having been locked out of his church last Sunday, proceeded to preach on the sidewalk. His congregation consisted of one man. The preacher read his text and Bible lesson. The congregation sat down on the curb and appeared interested. The minister plunged into his subject and delivered an impressive sermon. Then he pronounced the benediction and, grasping the man by the hand, said: "Brother, your presence has been a source of gratification and pride to me. May I inquire who you are?" "I am a reporter," said the man.—New York Tribune.

A Real Convert.

A recent convert of the Salvation Army in Seattle, Wash., gave a startling proof of the genuineness of his profession of repentance by making public announcement that he was an escaped convict having 16 years yet to serve in the Leavenworth (Kan.) penitentiary, and that he was ready to go back to jail. A few days ago a guard from the penitentiary arrived in Seattle, identified the converted convict and took him back, really rejoicing.

A HERO IN UNIFORM.

What might have been a very serious incident was averted on a recent afternoon by the cool head and quick wit of a messenger boy.

It was about 3 o'clock, when Park row, New York, is crowded, and trucks and cable cars get badly tangled up. The boy was near the entrance to the Brooklyn bridge, when a horse attached to a wagon owned by a soda water firm took fright at an Italian with a push cart full of bananas, and started on a wild run up Park row. When at the corner of North William street the wagon gave a terrific lurch, spilling half of its contents of soda water bottles and maddening the runaway horse.

It was just at this critical point that the little messenger jumped into the wagon from the rear and scrambled on the seat, where he managed to get hold of the flying reins, and with a tremendous jerk landed the horse on his haunches. The driver soon came hurrying along and took possession of his flighty charge. When a policeman accosted the daring messenger boy and asked his name, the latter refused to tell who he was, and, hiding the number on his cap with his hand, scurried away.—New York Recorder.

NEW WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

Consolidation Which Will Insure an Institution Second to None.

Arrangements are practically completed for the consolidation of Downer college at Fox Lake, Wis., and Milwaukee college, and establishing in Milwaukee in the near future a college for women second to none in this country. The combination will bring to the institution an endowment fund of $225,000 and otherwise vastly increase its stability and field of usefulness. There is every reason to believe the consolidation will be effected, in which case the head of the institution will doubtless be Miss Ellen A. Sabin, now principal of Downer college at Fox Lake.

Some of the trustees of the Milwaukee college presented a plan, and it was practically settled that the union should take place before next fall. There are two conditions: The Milwaukee college is to secure a site for the college buildings and grounds, and it is to raise an additional endowment of $25,000. With the consummation of the present plans it is likely the sites and buildings of both institutions at present will be sold and a new site secured and built upon at some one of the many [illegible] points around the city.—Chicago Tribune.

Equal to the Emergency.

In the bonanza days drinking or even having the odor of liquor about him was enough to insure the dismissal of a mine station tender, engineer or other employee in a responsible position. One day Uncle John Mackay, as the miners called him, was riding down in the three decker cage with some friends when he began to sniff the air suspiciously. "I smell w-whisky," he said at last, with his well known stutter. "There," exclaimed the station tender to one of his miner companions, "I told that d——d barber not to put so much bay rum on my hair."—San Francisco Argonaut.

Connecticut Has No Flag.

Connecticut has made the astounding discovery that she has no flag. She desires to say, however, that, though a trifle [illegible], she is still turning out a good brand of wooden nutmegs and her shoe-pegs are easily mistaken for oats.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Lost an Eye From Poisoned Money.

G. E. Bruner, cashier of the Citizens' National bank of Kokomo, Ind., lost an eye from peculiar poisoning, and there is little hope of saving the other. It is thought that the poison came from the coin or paper money handled.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

No Infringement.

Lightning is said to have killed and skinned a pig on Long Island, but, so far as known, it was no infringement on any of Edison's patents.—Chicago Post.

Her New Authority.

The hand that rocks the cradle can also scare the world out of its wits with a bicycle bell.—Detroit Tribune.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. DON'T STOP TOBACCO

It is Injurious To Stop Suddenly

And don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured, I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for thirty-three years and during the past two years have used chewing tobacco very extensively. My nervous system being affected considerable. I have often tried to give up the use of tobacco, but always failed, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I used tobacco at the same time while taking "Baco-Curo," and after a week I lost the appetite for tobacco—smoking or chewing. I am enjoying better health, and consider your "Baco-Curo" the safest, most harmless and reliable remedy for to break the tobacco habit.

Yours truly, JOHN RODDEN,

Gentlemen—Last summer I furnished Mr James Reid, of the town of Burnside, Trempealeau Co., with three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." He had chewed tobacco for over forty years and the last year used over sixty-five pounds. He commenced using "Baco-Curo" and one box did not have the effect, when he had used about one-half of the second box, he began to lose his taste for tobacco, and when he had used one-half of the third box he had lost all his appetite for it, and is now entirely cured.

Yours truly, J. C. TAYLOR, Druggist.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

This is to certify that I, William S. Sawyer, of Atlantic, County of Cass, State of Iowa, having been an inveterate smoker of tobacco, bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" Dec. 21, 1891. Began taking same according to directions and can say that I am completely cured of the tobacco habit. "Baco-Curo" is simply wonderful and I recommend it to all who are slaves to the tobacco habit and wish to be cured. I am in perfect health and have not felt so well in years. That terrible craving, which every tobacco user has more or less, has completely disappeared and I feel like a new man. Hoping that this may do some one good and lead them to try this wonderful remedy, "Baco-Curo," I remain, Yours truly,

WM. S. SAWYER, Atlantic, Iowa.

Gentlemen—For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For twenty-five years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Baco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and condition.

Yours respectfully, P. H. MARBURY,

WHAT MR. KRAEMER SAYS OF "BACO-CURO."

ATLANTIC, Iowa, Feb. 4, 1895.

This is to certify that I, F. D. Kraemer, of Atlantic, Iowa, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes for more than two years.

About eight weeks ago I bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo." I began taking it according to directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for cigarettes left me, and I have had no desire since.

I can heartily recommend "Baco-Curo" to all who are slaves to the cigarette habit or tobacco habit in any form, and are in search of a cure. I had become so under the influence of cigarettes, I could not remember anything; could not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death in the end, if kept up.

Cigarettes are sapping the lives out of more boys and young men to-day, than anything that is known to the world. Boys, before it is too late get some of this remedy that killed the craving for cigarettes in me and save your young life. Restore yourself to manhood. You will feel as though you had escaped an awful doom, and you have, when cured by "Baco-Curo," for you feel like a new being. I never felt better in all my life than at this present writing. I did not know what was the matter with me, until informed by the agent. He told me what was the reason I could not do anything unless under the influence of the death-dealing poison found in cigarettes. I did not believe him at first, until he explained the action on the system. Then I bought the goods and thank God and all concerned. I am a sound person to-day. Hoping that this may reach the unfortunate cigarette smoker, I remain, Yours respectfully,

F. D. KRAEMER.

HIS FATAL ERROR.

Arabella Was Late and Direful Consequences Ensued.

She was visiting her married sister, and young Mr. Buncome was extremely anxious to win the golden opinion of this sister and so obtain a clean parlor for his courtship. It was this desire which lured him beyond his conversational depths and proved the shipwreck of his hopes.

"I suppose you are fond of babies, Mr. Buncome?" observed his hostess, who was entertaining him while her sister was up stairs putting on her hat.

"Oh—that is—extremely so. They—they are so—so innocent—you know."

"Indeed they are, Mr. Buncome. You are a real child lover, I can see. I want you to see my baby before you go. I am expecting it home at any moment now. You see, I was going to a reception last night, and the dear little thing's godmother volunteered to keep it for me."

"Ah—ah, delighted, I'm sure," murmured the terrified young man. "Aw—that is, they—they seem almost like beings from another world. I—I scarcely dare to touch one of them."

"Dear baby will go to you at once, I am sure, Mr. Buncome. I never saw a baby less afraid of strangers and so willing to kiss them too."

Drops of perspiration stood out on Mr. Buncome's brow. "I have a slight cold today, and I once read that one should never kiss a child under such circumstances. I have never done such a thing since then, I assure you."

"Ah, you are indeed a rare child lover, Mr. Buncome. My baby is so good, too, and scarcely ever cries—in the daytime, that is."

"Very nice indeed, I'm sure. Babies are so—so different about that, you know. Why, a little friend in the next room at the hotel kept me awake 12 hours last night."

"Perhaps the poor little thing was ill, Mr. Buncome. Now, my baby is not at all like others. What do you think of a baby that is so sensible it will not really cry loudly for fear of disturbing others? Yet that is just what my baby does, though I can never get my husband to acknowledge it."

"Ah, perhaps he does not really appreciate the little angel. Now, if he had only heard that little howler last night he would do so."

"I shall tell him you said so. What is your hotel, Mr. Buncome?"

"The Skyscraper, and I only hope I shall not be obliged to move, as I told the clerk, to get away from that leather lunged infant."

"The Skyscraper! Why, that was where my baby was last night. Did you see it?"

"I—I think not. I am afraid that Miss Arabella and I will be late for the matinee."

"Oh, no; there is no hurry! Arabella never cares for the first act anyhow. Why, here come the nurse with baby now! You shall see the little darling. Well, Nora, how did baby get along without me last night?"

"Oh, very well indeed, mum! It didn't be crying as much as usual. But some nasty brute in the next room kept pounding on the wall and calling to us to strangle the blessed angel if we couldn't quiet it any other way. The clerk said he threatened to leave this morning if the baby didn't."

Mr. Buncome turned ashy pale and wondered if Arabella would arrive in season to save his life.

"I am sure, Mr. Buncome," observed his hostess, and there was a blizzard in her voice, "I am sure I hope that my baby did not disturb you last night."

"Oh, no; I am sure not! Such—such a manly little fellow as he is!"

"Manly, indeed! John Henry Buncome, I'd have you to know that my baby is a girl, and she has more sense this blessed minute than you will ever have!"

Freshest News.

Mr. Joseph Willard, for a long time clerk of the superior court of Massachusetts in Boston, relates in his "Half a Century With Judges and Lawyers" many good anecdotes.

Colonel Edward G. Parker, who was rather pedantic, wrote a life of Mr. Choate. He was relating an incident which happened in the third century before Christ, about the time of the death of Ptolemy III and he appealed to John S. Holmes, who stood by: "Didn't he die about that time, John?"

"Who's that that's dead?" asked Holmes.

"Ptolemy III," said Parker.

"What! What!" said Holmes, stretching out his hands. "You don't say he's dead!"—Youth's Companion.

Masculine Superiority.

"What are you doing now?" was asked of the girl with aspirations.

"Sculpture. I have been trying to make a marble bust. I have been working on it all day."

"Rats!" interjected the small brother. "Girls ain't got no muscle at all. If I couldn't bust a marble in five minutes, I'd give up and own I was no good."—Cincinnati Tribune.

THE MISSES PORTER'S SCHOOL.

The concert with which the commencement exercises of the Misses Porter's school closed, at the Assembly Rooms, last night, was very well attended, the room being filled by as fine an audience as ever assembled in Middletown. The entertainment was a most excellent one and pleased every one. The programme was as follows:

Two Pianos—"Spinning Song," from Flying Dutchman ....Wagner
Misses Iseman, Rogers Clarke and Tymerson.
Recitation—"A Similar Case".....Anonymous
Miss Grace Stratton.
Ideal March.................... H. W, Harris
The Mandolin Club
Recitation—"The First Party"................—Josephine Pollard
Miss Anna McWilliams.
Piano Solo—"Last Hope"... ....Gottschalk
Miss Katharine Iseman
Recitation—"Sister and I"........Anonymous
Miss Mabel Landphier
Duo—Two Pianos—'Airs from Martha" . ...—Flowtow
Misses Iseman and Rogers
Recitation—"Tom's Letter".... ...Neil Forrest
Miss Bessie Beers.
Air from 'Il Trovatore'".. ....Verdi
Misses Iseman and Rogers
Recitation—"The Death Bridge of the Kay"....—Will Carleton
Miss Eleanore Billings Royce.
Piano Solo—'Etude De Concert',..........Liszt
Miss Bessie Beers
Recitation—"Archie Dean".. . Gail Hamilton
Miss Bessie Rogers.
Two Pianos—"Hungarian Rhapsody. No 2 .....—Liszt
Misses Iseman, Tymerson, Rogers and Beers.
Recitation (selected) ....
Miss Emily Franklin Smith.

The musical selections were all admirably rendered, those from two pianos being played in perfect time.

The duo on two pianos by Misses Iseman and Beers was one of the features of the evening. Miss Iseman's solo showed the skill and finish of a thorough musician, and Miss Beers' solo was played with rare delicacy of touch and expression, which shows that she possesses great musical gifts.

The recitations by Misses Grace Stratton, Anna McWilliams, Mabel Landphier, Bessie Beers, Eleanore Billings Royce and Bessie Rogers were all well done and showed careful and intelligent instruction on the part of the teacher and faithful and painstaking work on the part of the pupils. Miss Royce, who has taken lessons in elocution for only a few months, rendered a most difficult selection, "The Death Bridge of the Tay," in a very effective manner. Most of the other young ladies took part in the Christmas entertainment given by the school, and those who heard them recite then were both pleased and surprised at the progress that their last night's efforts showed that they had made.

A pleasing feature of the entertainment was the excellent playing of the Mandolin Club, constituted as follows:

Mandolins—Miss Park, Miss Drake, Miss Durflinger, Mr. Parsells.
Banjo—Mr. Merritt Beers.
Guitars—Miss Rasmussen, Miss Morris.
Mandolin guitar—Miss Harris.

ABLE TO LEAVE THE HOSPITAL.

Dr Howard J. Powelson Taken to His Home—His Remarkable Recovery.

Dr. Howard J. Powelson, who was operated on for appendicitis at Thrall Hospital, six weeks ago, left the hospital for his home, this afternoon. He has entirely recovered from the operation, the wound has entirely healed and all that is necessary is a little more time in order to entirely restore him to his usual health and strength.

Dr. Powelson's quick recovery from a disease that proves fatal in so many cases is due in no small degree to the unremitting care and attention of his physician, Dr. D. B. Hardenburgh. He quickly diagnosed the disease and thus made it possible for the operation to be performed before the inflammation had extended and lessened the patient's chances of recovery. After the operation Dr. Hardenburgh watched his patient so closely, day and night, that every unfavorable symptom was noticed and combatted so that there were no set backs in the progress to recovery.

The hospital nurses were also unremitting in their care and did everything in their power to help Dr. Powelson back to health.

L. Wagner, Wholesale Druggist Richmond, Va., says: "I had a fearful attack of Sciatic Rheumatism, was laid up almost two months; was fortunate enough to get MYSTIC CURE FOR RHEUMATISM. A DRIVER'S NERVE.

How Judge Martin Drove Through Two Drivers Who Were Pocketing Him.

The accident which threw Ira Ryerson, the driver of Gerhardt, from his sulky on the Goshen Driving Park, Thursday, and his regaining his seat and finishing the heat, reminds the Independent Republican of a display of even greater nerve on the same track. The Independent says:

Judge Lewis J. Martin, of Deckertown, was the man, and the occurence took place probably ten years ago, when he was driving the well known trotter Mystic. Martin's horse was the fastest starter in the race, and would have won in straight heats but for the jockeying of the drivers of Tom Keeler and Everett Ray, both of whom were anxious to defeat him. For two heats Mystic was pocketed from start to finish and Keeler led at the wire. Before the start for the third heat was made Martin notified both the other drivers that if they pocketed him again he would drive through them. No heed was paid to the warning, and as the horses rounded the turn into the backstretch it was seen that Keeler was ahead with Mystic directly behind him, held in that position by Everett Ray, who was close alongside. Near the quarter-pole Martin sent Mystic straight between the two other horses. There was a crash, a confused view for an instant of drivers and sulkies flying through the air, and then Mystic was seen in the lead leaving behind him two wrecked sulkies and two badly shaken drivers. Baker, the driver of Keeler, was picked up with an ugly gash in his head, Everett Ray added to the excitement by running away, but Mystic went on and won the heat handily and then the race. And the popular verdict, when it was found that neither of the drivers was badly hurt, was "served them right." Mystic carried a pile of Sussex county money that day, and his backers went home with their pockets well filled.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH LAWN PARTY

A Large Attendance and a Social and Financial Success.

A lawn party was held on the premises of Mr. Wm. Randall, on Monhagen avenue, last evening. The spacious lawn was lighted with three locomotive headlights kindly furnished by Supt. Hopkins of the O. and W., and numerous Chinese lanterns added to the brilliancy of the scene.

There was a large crowd in attendance and the tables at which ice cream and cake were served were liberally patronized.

A WRECK ON THE ERIE.

The rails on the east bound track of the Erie spread near the Hackensack bridge, yesterday afternoon; a flagman was sent out to warn trains, but it is understood the flagman fell asleep and a west bound train came along and was derailed, the engine going over on its side and several cars leaving the rails and blocking both tracks.

The afternoon passenger trains were all run around by the Newark branch and delayed about half an hour.
